

WHAT MAKES GBT UNIQUE?

It has been over 60 years GBT has been empowering youth to S.H.I.N.E.® - helping them rebuild their lives and belief in themselves. GBT's journey has been that of restoring dreams and bettering lives of youth in South Africa. The peer-group system of self government sets GBT apart from other youth programmes in South Africa. This programme involves youth in decision making about their own affairs and instils leadership qualities. GBT further offers unique holistic, structured community-based services to other professionals and families who work and live with boys and girls.

WHY LEAVE YOUR LEGACY TO GBT?

Your gift will help children at GBT far into the future. You will have the satisfaction of knowing that you are helping abused, neglected, deprived and abandoned youth and making a meaningful contribution to South African society. GBT is a well-established, reputable organisation, whose Board of Trustees governs it in such a way that its mission will be carried on for as long as there is a need.

WRITING UP YOUR WILL.

If you're over 18 and have not yet done so, you need to draw up a Will. Although you can write up your own Will, it is recommended to consult a professional such as an attorney, accountant or trust company. These professionals can offer you impartial advice and show you ways to save on estate duty. A Will is the only way you can be sure your assets, which you have acquired during your lifetime are distributed in the way that you wish and to the best advantage of those for whom you care.
